Chris, you are one of a kind, and it has been my pleasure in meeting you. You are VERY special, and I really believe the reason you are such an excellent salesman is because you relate and care for others. That is an unique quality this century. Even as we are still (it seems like) getting the run-around, you have been a bright spot in this mess. May the LORD bless you for thinking of us. I really needed it. Wish you could have been here to help us eat all the food I fixed. Had all my kids together, plus a family I have adopted.

HOPE to see you soon, Martha
